

MEN'S MINISTRY DIRECTOR

The men's ministry director will organize and lead a ministry that builds up and helps the men of the church become spiritual leaders and provides an avenue of outreach to men in the community.

| | |
|-------------------------------------|--|
| Ministry Area/Department | Men |
| Position | Men's ministry director |
| Accountable To | Pastor |
| Position Is | Volunteer |
| Spiritual Gifts | • Pastor/shepherd • Administration |
| Talents or Abilities Desired | • Able to relate well with other people • Creative • Good organizational skills |
| Best Personality Traits | • Dependable • Leader • Organized |
| Passion For | Developing and encouraging men of God |

RESPONSIBILITIES/DUTIES

- Meet regularly—perhaps monthly—with the various men's ministry coordinators and directors to discuss progress, praises, challenges, solutions and new ideas.
- Be available to talk with men's ministry leaders about concerns or needs they may have.
- Participate in special events and activities for men.
- Work with the men's small group leader to plan a special yearly trip to an inspirational event for men.
- Read, research and evaluate materials on men's ministries and apply what you learn to this church's men's ministry.
- Provide training opportunities for men leaders in the church.
- Act as a liaison between the men's ministries and the pastor.
- Oversee the distribution of funds for men's ministries and keep track of budget expenditures.